REPORT OF DIRECTOR AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Barnwell County Career Center (BCCC) is one of eleven multi-district career centers in South Carolina. BCCC serves students from Barnwell School Districts 19, 29, and 45. BCCC had an enrollment of 534 participating in twelve career programs in 2011-2012.

Seventy-four students were involved in School-to-Work activities. Activities included cooperative learning at twenty-one different sites, shadowing local businesses and participating in clinicals at various medical sites in the local area. BCCC also continues to provide School Based Enterprise opportunities for the school year. Twenty-four students participated in the School Based Enterprise. Shadowing opportunities were made available to middle school students from our feeder schools.

Forty-eight students were inducted into the National Technical Honor Society. Students were involved in a variety of organizations, such as SkillsUSA, HOSA, DECA, FFA, and FCCLA. Membership in these organizations allows students to participate in regional, state, and national competitions in their program of study. Three students participated in the SkillsUSA competition in Greenville, SC, where one student earned Second Place in the state Cosmetology contest and another student earned Fourth Place in the state Criminal Justice contest. Another student finished 5th in the Automotive Technology Competition. Fourteen students attended the State HOSA convention in Charleston where one student won a silver medal, two students won bronze medals, and one student earned a fourth place in another competition. One student competed in the state FCCLA competition, where she won first place gold in the Job Interview competition. Two students from the Automotive Technology program competed in the Ford AAA Auto Skills competition, finishing 2nd overall and won scholarships and prizes. One student finished second in the South Carolina Automobile Dealership Association Student Skills Competition. Sixty-two students earned national/industry certification during the 2011-2012 school year.

The FFA chapter at BCCC continues to be involved in many community activities. The chapter sponsored another High School Rodeo event in the fall. Students attended numerous FFA events. Grants and awards amounting to $4700 were won by the FFA program. Students attended the National FFA Convention in Indianapolis.

BCCC had a total of 98 students from the three district high schools who completed training at the center. Of the 2010 Career and Technology completers eligible for placement, 96.8% were placed in secondary programs, the military, or gainful employment.

Comprehensive detail, including definitions of ratings, performance criteria, and explanations of status, is available on www.ed.sc.gov and www.eoc.sc.gov as well as school and school district websites.
